

We DO NOT want to be bothered with telemarketing phone calls! If we have changed a service for whatever reason, we do not want the former provider to be able to call and solicit our business. If they would have provided the best service in the beginning we would not have changed the provider.